PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

This matter is before the Court on the Motion of the United States for a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture as to Defendant Isidro Camacho-Castillo (“Camacho-Castillo”, “Defendant”), based upon the following:

1. On March 28, 2017, a multi-count Indictment was filed charging Camacho-Castillo with:

Count 1: Drug trafficking, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841;

Counts 2-3: Firearm offenses, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(3)(A) and 924(c); and Count 4: Reentry of removed aliens, in violation of 8 U.S.C. §1326.

2. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(a), the Indictment contained a notice of forfeiture providing that upon Camacho-Castillo’s conviction, certain properties enumerated therein, or equivalent substitute assets, would be subject to forfeiture to the United States. As specified, such assets include, but are not limited to the following:

(1) Total Cash Proceeds:<sup>1</sup>

(2) Cash/Currency Seized:<sup>2</sup>

- (a) $177,989.00 of currency seized on March 8, 2017, from 3538 Alex Drive, Galivants Ferry, South Carolina

Asset ID: 17-ICE-001561

3. On October 16, 2017, Camacho-Castillo pled guilty pursuant to a written plea agreement to Count 1, possession with intent to distribute a quantity of cocaine, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1); and Count 2 to possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A) and agreed to the entry of a forfeiture money judgment.

4. Based on Defendant's conviction, the Court has determined that the government has established the requisite nexus between the amount of proceeds Defendant obtained, and the offense for which Defendant has been convicted; therefore the United States is entitled to a preliminary order of forfeiture, subject to the provisions of U.S.C. § 853 governing third party rights. The Court has determined that the property described above is subject to forfeiture, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. §§ 853 and 881 and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c). Therefore, it is ORDERED THAT all property, real or personal, which constitutes or is derived from proceeds traceable to the possession with intent to distribute violations of Title 21, United States Code, Section 841 are forfeited to the United States.

5. The Court further finds that one or more of the conditions set forth in Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), exists.

6. It is, therefore, ORDERED that the United States is entitled to forfeit substitute assets equal to the value of the proceeds in the drug trafficking by Defendant as a result of his violations of Title 21, United States Code, Section 841, and that such substitute assets shall not exceed the value of the proceeds Defendant obtained in the drug trafficking.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED,

1. The below-described property, and all right, title, and interest of the Defendant, Isidro Camacho-Castillo, in and to such property, is hereby forfeited to the United States of America, for disposition in accordance with law, subject to the rights of third parties in such property under 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

2. FORFEITURE IS ORDERED against Isidro Camacho-Castillo and in favor of the United States for an undetermined amount, along with appropriate costs and interest thereon at the rate provided for in 28 U.S.C. § 1961. The United States may at any time move pursuant to Rule 32.2(e) to amend this Order to substitute property to satisfy the money judgment.

3. The United States may sell or otherwise dispose of any substitute assets in accordance with law as required to satisfy the above imposed money judgment.

4. Upon the entry of this Order, the United States Attorney is authorized to conduct proper discovery in identifying, locating, or disposing of the described property, or other substitute assets, in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3); and to commence proceedings that comply with statutes governing third party rights, if applicable.

5. The Government is not required to publish notice regarding the personal money judgment against Defendant; however, the Order shall be recorded in the records of the County Clerk's Office in the County of the debtor's residence, place of business, and any and all other counties in which the debtor has either real or personal property, as a lien thereon.

6. Upon entry of the criminal judgment, this Order becomes final as to Defendant, and shall be made a part of the sentence and included in the criminal judgment.

7. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

8. The Clerk, United States District Court, shall provide one (1) certified copy of this Order to the United States Attorney's Office.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
